

THE DIAMOND APPROACH®

NEW GROUP FORMING IN DC

"Kindness fuels inquiry with the capacity to listen to our experience and to be receptive to the communications from our soul. This allows the soul to be wide open to revelation and unfoldment." -A. H. Almaas

Who am I? When posed with sincerity, this question activates a process of self-discovery that moves us inward toward the mysterious heart of our deepest nature. The Diamond Approach path supports this revelatory journey where love and understanding converge in a process of open-ended inquiry.

Who am I? This path supports your own unique process of self-revelation. If the question is a whisper in the wind passing through your mind, or a flicker in your heart, perhaps this path is the right support for your journey home to yourself.

The Diamond Approach is an ongoing unfoldment of spiritual wisdom and knowledge about how this wisdom integrates into our lives. Groups become powerful vehicles for the work necessary for real transformation.

We are excited to be opening a third group in the DC area (the first began in 1999). We are continuing to offer a series of introductory teachings in 2021: January 30, April 10, June 5, September 4, October 9 and December TBA. All are welcome to join us.

This group will be led by Victoria Young, Leah Chyten & Vince Draddy. They've each been teaching the Diamond Approach for nearly 20 years, and became students of this work long before that.

They have led and supported groups in Europe and California, and along the east coast from New England to Atlanta.
