Diamond Approach Florida

Real Love In A Divided World

“Love is what makes the world go ‘round.” Yet, in this divided world, we may sometimes feel disconnected from Love. Particularly when things are difficult in our lives, we need the true embrace of Real Love.

As humans, Real Love is so fundamental that we need it to thrive and live. For our inner journey to flourish, we also need Real Love.

When Love is real, we are imbued with a fully human heart that is sensitive, loving, sweet and appreciative in a personal way.

When we know and touch our experience through this loving and appreciative heart, our inner journey is fueled by Real Love. This is a love that acts to reveal and illuminate our true depth. In this way our inner journey becomes an exquisite expression of who we really are in our heart of hearts.

Diamond Approach Florida, a new open group, welcomes new participants to join us for this online teaching weekend January 30-31, 2021.

There will be talks evoking our depth, meditation and personal inquiry exploration.
