Diamond Approach Florida

ESSENTIAL MERGING LOVE

Diamond Approach Florida, an open group, welcomes new participants to this online teaching weekend on July 15-16. All are welcome! There will be talks evoking our depth, meditation and personal inquiry exploration.

How do we connect with ourselves and others in a real loving way? True merging love is an essential quality.

Essential merging gold love is a golden, transparent, fluid love with a melting, nourishing and connecting sense. We can feel like we are merging with the other in a golden pool of love. There is a sense of pleasure and connection without losing a sense of oneself.

This is a primary quality that pervades the good mother- child relationship in infancy. By exploring the dynamics of our own early relationship with our mother we can understand how we may seek this kind of connection, or avoid it, or be ambivalent about it. This in turn allows us to become freer and more real in our lives.

TEACHERS: Ilene Buchalter, a Diamond Approach teacher since 2002, works with groups and individuals living in Florida, Colorado, the Southeast, across the U.S., and internationally.

Ursula McCall, a Diamond Approach teacher since 2015, works with groups and individuals living in Florida, Hawaii, and internationally.
