

"This work has given me a way for me to know myself as I truly am. What greater gift could there be? May my offering help to support you in your work. I wish it could be more."

~ Anonymous Donor

Dear Friend,

Like any other non-profit in America, the Ridhwan Foundation depends on charitable financial giving for a portion of our annual budget. Tuition, fees, and dues do not cover all the costs of all we do to support the teaching in the world. Currently close to 25% of our costs are covered by student donations.

Looking ahead to 2025, we are inspired by the possibilities that lie before us. As we continue to evolve, with your help we can ensure that these precious teachings are accessible to all who seek them, regardless of financial means.

Your year-end gift will help us to:

- Maintain affordable tuition and teaching fees making the transformative Diamond Approach teachings accessible to a wider audience.
- Ensure the long-term sustainability of the School as we prepare for the eventual reality of a spiritual path and school that will continue beyond its founders.
- Key IT infrastructure upgrades to enhance the user experience by integrating the student portal with Diamond Approach Online (DAO), offering more streamlined and intuitive navigation with a single login.

"Something I realized when I first started to contribute was, I thought my contribution was too small. But I decided to do it anyway and make it recurring. What that means is that after many years, my contribution has actually become a meaningful amount. So, for those who might be hesitant, a small donation frequently really does add up over time."

~ Donna Fowler, IRG, California

Each contribution, whether large or small, plays a critical role in helping us continue this essential work. Your generosity helps others access the teachings that allow them to move beyond the limitations of the ego and realize their true nature.

To make a gift, you can:

As we conclude this year and continue to prepare for the future of our School, we hope you'll consider making a year-end contribution to support the ongoing work of the school and availability/accessibility of the teaching. Together, we can help more people embark on their journey toward realizing the depth, richness, and truth of who they are.

With profound gratitude for your support and dedication to the path, we wish you a peaceful and blessed holiday season.

With deep appreciation,

The Friends of Ridhwan Board: Vaishali Chadha, Laurie Chestnut, Claus Friedrich Haalck, Rob Gussenhoven, Michael Ohr, Seth Schapiro, Alexander Verdegaal and Richard Wallstein
