

Discovering the Essence of the Awakened Heart

It is not easy to stay a lover in this world. We get wounded, betrayed, abandoned, misunderstood and rejected. Our innocence, the preciousness of our heart lost or hidden.

It is easy to fall into cynicism, easy to mistake love with sentimentality, a fleeting emotion, a weakness, a recipe for hurt. Or reduce love to a fleeting and unreliable phenomenon caused by bio chemicals.

In our caravan of love, inspired by the book Love Unveiled by A.H. Almaas, we will shine a light on our hearts and allow for the wisdom of love to take us onto a journey of revelation.

You are being invited to discover and explore the essence of the awakened heart. What is the truth and nature of the human heart? What are the different flavors of love that human beings have longed for and written about forever? How do they actually feel like, experientially? What prevents us from perceiving them in ourselves and from realizing love as our inner nature?

We will use Diamond Inquiry to explore our personal history, experience and relationship with love and our heart's relationship with the Divine.

In addition to teaching and meditation, music, poetry, silence - the language of the heart - will support this sacred turning to the boundless heart.
