

THE DIAMOND APPROACH®

WAKING UP TO THE JOY OF DISCOVERY INTRODUCTION TO THE DIAMOND APPROACH

A basic spiritual orientation is Love for the Truth. Yet there is something needed to really ignite that Love, something that is naturally there within all of us, yet often we are not very aware of it or in touch with it. This is our own natural and innate Curiosity, a quality of our very Being—one that helps us open up to the vast and magical treasures of our inner life. In this weekend we will explore our natural Curiosity—what it is, what prevents its activation, and how we might reconnect more fully with this playful and creative dimension of ourselves.
