

THE DIAMOND APPROACH[®]

CAPACITIES OF THE TRUE HUMAN: EXPANSION AND COURAGE

NEW DIAMOND APPROACH GROUP FORMING

Throughout human history, our deepest, timeless spiritual longing has been the desire to know the depth of Reality, whether we call it God, Truth, or Enlightenment.

In modern times we also long for freedom and personal fulfillment, as well as the capacity to live our lives fully in an authentic way. The Diamond Approach aligns with both our timeless desires and those that are unique to our own time.

Through inquiry into our immediate, personal experience, we come to know ourselves beyond the patterning of our history and our psychology, while developing the capacities necessary for a full human life in this world.

In this daylong teaching, we will explore the natural human movement toward expansion and development, and the courage to align with this force. As our being aligns with this dimension of its source, we find the ability to live more fully and authentically, supported by a new experience of strength and capacity, and greater knowledge of our depth.
