

THE DIAMOND APPROACH®

Boston 4 Group

September 19–20, 2020

Saturday 9:30am - 7:30pm

Sunday 9:30am - 5:00pm

In our next weekend we'll start working with the experience of basic trust. Most of us think that trust is something we do, something we can choose and decide. However, the Diamond Approach shows us something very surprising; that trust is actually the result, the experience of the soul when it is impacted, influenced by a particular essential quality of our nature.
