

Come to: An Introduction to the Diamond Approach

Saturday March 21, 2020 1pm to 3pm At: 2475 McDougal Ave
Windsor, Ontario N8X 3N9

Cost: Free

The Diamond Approach is a spiritual path developed by A. H. Almaas for our time. It uses the findings of modern psychology and the ancient wisdom traditions to support a return to essence, or our true nature.

The Diamond Approach presents a detailed map of how the connection is lost to our inherent spiritual qualities, such as love, compassion, strength and dignity, and gives us a way back. Many paths have descriptions of these core qualities but lack a way of inquiring in a systematic way which allows real unfoldment—against the momentum of egoic life.

Come learn and practice inquiry, a primary practice of the path. When you practice inquiry with us, you will see how your own experience can unfold and you will see the teachings in a personal, dynamic way which is suited for you. This is part of the “alchemical” magic of the Diamond Approach.

Also, come find out details about this path and opportunities in area for practicing it.

Presented by: Lou Weir

What to expect: There will be guidance to learn inquiry, a chance to practice it and a brief description of the Diamond Approach and time for Questions and Comments.
