THE CONTEMPORARY PILGRIM: A SPIRITUAL JOURNEY IN TODAY'S WORLD

A New Diamond Approach Group Forming

A spiritual journey is a kind of pilgrimage. Traditionally, it is a journey to a sacred destination. But who is making this journey? What is calling us to go? What guides us as we travel?

A true pilgrimage involves a radical transformation of all our beliefs about ourselves and reality that is brought about by Reality itself. And it is our radical, inquiring attention to this actual moment of our experience that invites the dynamism of Reality to transform us.

The Diamond Approach invites the revelation that every moment of our ordinary experience can become the path, the guide, and the destination of our journey. As this journey unfolds, we see that our fundamental nature is not separate from our every day human life and that our human life can become an expression and embodiment of fundamental Truth.
